WELCOME TO DALLAS

Continuing the efforts of the recent past, The American Society of Allied Health Professions will accent HEALTH and the contributions of the various disciplines comprising health care delivery at its 18th Annual Meeting. "ASAHP and Dallas 1985 / For the Health of It" will blend all aspects of health promotion and disease prevention with the latest state-of-the-art material on individual professions and the many aspects of educational techniques and administration. The Program Planning Committee has selected from an unusually large number of submissions almost 30 papers for presentation. Forums and Interest Sections will greatly expand and elaborate on the Meeting theme and will extend from Thursday through Saturday. At least nine Workshops, provided at no additional charge, will be offered on Wednesday and will present excellent opportunities to upgrade old skills and acquire new ones.

Providing center stage attractions will be the Keynote Address presented by Dr. Kenneth H. Cooper on Wednesday and the Annual Switzer Lecture by Dr. J. Michael McGinnis on Friday. Dr. Cooper has a long history of advocacy for health promotion through fitness, has developed the concept of aerobics to a high level, and is the founder and president of the Aerobics Center of Dallas. Dr. McGinnis is presently Deputy Assistant Secretary for Health and Director, Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion in the Department of Health and Human Services.

No meeting can be a real success without diversions and the Committee is working to ensure there will be an adequate supply. Two buffet receptions will be hosted for all registrants and the Texas Night on Thursday will highlight the flavor of the West. String ties, plaid shirts, denims, and other range accouterments are welcome but no horses, please! Optional trips to Southfork and to Billy Bob's will be offered along with the possibility of watching the Chicago/Cowboys game on the 17th or the Philadelphia game on the 24th. Special events for registered spouses will include all of the above plus a hospitality room, shopping trips, and a special tour and high tea at Las Colinas.

Scheduled through Sunday morning, there will be more than enough to suit all tastes. The $50 single or double rate at this first class hotel and the excellent airfares offered make this a special bargain and the convenient location provides ready access to the airports, shopping, downtown, and a host of exciting eating places catering to all appetites and purses.

We look forward to greeting you and introducing you to our great city. Come early and stay long!

John W. Schermerhorn, Chairman
Program Planning Committee

KENNETH H. COOPER, M.D.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

"The Boom in Preventive Medicine"

Kenneth H. Cooper, M.D.

Wednesday, November 20

6:30 PM

Recognized through his writing and research as the leader of the international physical fitness movement, Kenneth H. Cooper, M.D., M.P.H., has been credited with getting more people to exercise in pursuit of good health than any other person.

From the time of his first book Aerobics, (1968) which was based on a system he developed during his U.S. Air Force career as a senior flight surgeon, Dr. Cooper has advocated revolutionizing the field of health care away from treatment to prevention through aerobic exercises.

His Aerobics concept has stressed the importance of maintaining good health through proper exercise, diet, and emotional balance and is vigorously promoted through The Aerobics Center established in Dallas in 1970 and through his research and books, the most recent of which is Running Without Fear. His five books have sold more than 12 1/2 million copies and have been translated into 28 languages and Braille.

Internationally recognized for his contributions to health maintenance, he was named by The London Times as one of 74 in the world as "The Greatest" of the last 20 years. In Brazil his name is synonymous with running and a Brazilian may very well ask the question, "Have you done your Cooper today?" He is presently a consultant in the construction of a 750 acre model of the Dallas Aerobics Center on the outskirts of Tokyo and is involved in similar efforts in Australia, Saudi Arabia, France, and Italy.

He is a strong advocate of basic research in wellness and has established as a division of the Dallas Center THE INSTITUTE FOR AEROBICS RESEARCH. The Institute currently possesses a computerized exercise database of more than 100,000 person years and utilizes as an objective measure of fitness the treadmill stress test. It has conducted broad research on the various cardiac risk factors and their importance in health maintenance.

Dr. Cooper's Keynote Presentation is sponsored by the Aerobics Center as a contribution to the theme of this Meeting. The Society is deeply appreciative for this important part of the program.

THE FUTURE IN OUR HANDS: THE JANUS FACES OF HEALTH CARE

ASAHP CALL FOR PAPERS/ABSTRACTS
1986 ANNUAL CONFERENCE
PITTSBURGH, PA
NOVEMBER 4-8, 1986

In keeping with "The Future in Our Hands: The Janus Faces of Health Care," the 1986 ASAHP Conference will look ahead to the 21st century while glancing back to make sure that the lessons learned from past accomplishments are not forgotten.

As health care moves towards the 21st century, new concerns and new issues have emerged that need to be addressed by all facets of health care system. In keeping with this theme abstracts for papers/programs are invited in the following major topic areas:

- Aging. An increasingly aging population has major implications for all aspects of health care delivery. Specific areas include education for geriatric practice, Alzheimer's disease, intergenerational programming, psychosocial aspects of aging as related to health care.
- Expanding ethics. Advances in health care in recent years have surfaced the necessity to deal with ethical concerns. Specific areas include transplants and the Right to Die.
- Changing patterns of educational preparation. Shifts in health care delivery are accompanied by new concerns in the preparation of professional personnel. Specific areas include clinical education, accreditation, levels of education (e.g. shift to graduate level first professional preparation), financing.
- International health care. America is assuming some responsibility for developing health care in other countries.

Abstracts for papers, programs, and poster sessions should be submitted by APRIL 15, 1986 to:

Dr. Jerome L. Martin, Dean
School of Health Related Professions
